What has been the most challenging part of your job recently? Build-out of a new space and moving two offices into one. And, have you made any changes to try and solve some of those issues? Staying super organized and making sure I planned ahead for everything.

What have been the most important steps in your life (schools, jobs, etc.) that have led you to where you are today? Running a previous sole proprietorship for 25 years and learning every aspect of running a business helped me adjust to corporate America.

Many people who work within the FM world have to act as 'leaders' in their jobs. What do you think makes a good leader, and have you done anything recently that has made you a leader? First and foremost, you must earn respect and trust of those you work with inside your company and outside with vendors. “Failure to plan is planning to fail.”

A year from now, what will you have hoped to accomplish, professionally or personally? Learn ways to run our new facility more efficiently and learn new ideas for making it even better.
